	Dawn Pendrick I think it's a great little read for local business to use and for general info I use it to find services Like · Reply · 20 h
	Glen Stanway A great resource and I have always had a good response from it Like · Reply · 20 h
	Carol Stanier Love it. So helpful, everything I need to know about the town in one place. Like · Reply · 20 h  Naomi Wallen
	Naomi Wallen Great. Really supportive team. Like · Reply · 20 h  Ann-Marie Kirkham
	Fantastic. Can't imagine life without it. Supportive team, lots of useful stuff in it.  Like · Reply · 20 h  Saltern Micholas
	Very good I look at it this way, anyone who advertises in it is local and good. Because it's such a local magazine it's a filter for any cowboys.  Like · Reply · 20 h
9	Jo Hardman I love it! I've advertised with them in the past and always had a really reliable professional service. I know if I want to find out what's going on in Royston that it will be in
6	Like · Reply · 20 h  Kelly Duffield
40	We always look forward to receiving our copy. It's great for local knowledge and if you are looking for local suppliers/tradesmen. Defo recommend  Like · Reply · 20 h
	Claire Drayton Always read it and telephone numbers very useful.  Like · Reply · 20 h
	Jane Wallington Love it. Great with a cuppa and to feel connected to our community x Like · Reply · 20 h
•	Lo Mac Highly recommend it Like · Reply · 20 h
(4)	Jane Craft We always receive a copy. Good source of information Like · Reply · 20 h  Helen Hastings
0	Agree with Jane 3  Like · Reply · 20 h  Jane Drury  I love it, but really sad that we don't have it delivered
	anymore & Like · Reply · 20 h  Kelly Da Silva Fernandes
-	Highly recommend it too, have advertised in there regularly, the team are fab and it's a great resource for what's going on locally  Like Reply 20 h
0	Shirley Pawson We look forward to it every month some very good information in it
0	Laura Whitford Invaluable part of Royston. We're very very lucky to have it
•	June Mills Yes ↓ ♥ ② 3 Like · Reply · 20 h
9	Elizabeth Price Have it delivered sporadically, but enjoy it when I get it. Useful info.  Like · Reply · 19 h
0	Ruth Brown Extremely useful reference for local organisations and events.
	Naomi Robertson It's fantastic. If I need a local service, it's easy to find with the Listing. Also love reading the little features.
	Like · Reply · 19 h  Tina Dear Always look forward to receiving as it has excellent info and very useful contacts for trades
•	Like · Reply · 19 h  Muriel Hunt Luv it
*	Like · Reply · 19 h  Muriel Hunt
	Like · Reply · 19 h  Jo White I always read it and keep for reference. It's so useful.  Like · Reply · 19 h  □ 1
	Louise Willsmore I wish i get one delivered to me $x$ Like $\cdot$ Reply $\cdot$ 19 h
	James Robinson Great local magazine. Provides a useful service.  Lynn Berry Always read it and find it very useful.
	Like · Reply · 19 h  Natalie Smith  Always read it, a really helpful local guide too.
	Like · Reply · 19 h  Heather Harvey No, but keep it for phone numbers, it's currently still in my newspaper box. Not read or taken out.!
&amp;	Like · Reply · 19 h  Safwaan Choudhury I have been an avid reader of The Listing for the last 10 years or so, it's a fantastic read and every month the magazine provides great information and business adverts  My Mum & Dad always look forward to reading The Listing  As an advertiser, I always receive the very best service and requests always fulfilled
•	Like · Reply · 19 h  Lucille Shears  Brilliant and the team are fantastic!
6	Like · Reply · 19 h  Gillian Barrett  Compared to 2  Like · Reply · 19 h
	Doris Solder Of course we do.
•	Kate Beed Look forward to getting it. Have found so many great local businesses through the listing.  Like · Reply · 18 h · Edited
8	Jemma Solder Love it x ② 2 Like · Reply · 18 h
	Lisa Penn Great, a useful reference and some interesting articles. Well done Cath and team 4 Like · Reply · 18 h
	Gillian Morland Always read it and live in village near by. Also very reliably delivered.  Like · Reply · 18 h
	Steve Greaves yep, great way of getting the news out to the communities
	Like · Reply · 18 h  Sarah Jackson I make an effort to pick one up from somewhere as I like to read it and don't get it delivered to my house in Royston.  Like · Reply · 18 h  Alison Jane White I look forward to it arriving and always enjoy reading it
0	Like · Reply · 18 h  Ann Milton
	Ann Milton Always look forward to it coming through the letter box. Like · Reply · 18 h  Kathryne Scully I love it. Really enjoy the articles and the info in it is really
1	useful ひ Like · Reply · 18 h  Melanie Hill
	As a business we switched our advertising to The Listing as we know it has great circulation locally and the service is superb. We've definitely benefitted. Personally I enjoy reading the articles to keep up with local news, clubs and events.  Like · Reply · 18 h  Samantha Elliott  It's good for knowing what's on - especially over the summer with the kids (this one not included obviously) I always flick through it when we get it  Pat Bolden Look forward to it.
	Like · Reply · 18 h □ 1  Victoria Hulström  It's a great local publication full of useful community info  □ 1
	Jassy Veale Yes always read and generally look forward to advertised events
3	Like · Reply · 18 h  Mimi Bee  Always read it. I even recommended it to a friend for advertising purposes this very day.
	Like · Reply · 18 h  Beckie Reid Love the listings
a	Very useful Like · Reply · 17 h  Lola Jo Hamilton I always read it too
	Like · Reply · 17 h 1  Jan Kitteringham  Always read it. Lovely to have it back again.
	Like · Reply · 17 h  Michael Anthony Jones Very useful
	Like · Reply · 16 h  Pat Gordon always read it cover to cover.  Like · Reply · 16 h
	Suzy Brandes It's a bonus of life in Royston  Like · Reply · 16 h
	Anna Westoby Always read it Like · Reply · 16 h
₹	Jacquie Smith Sure do. Lots of interesting articles and helpful information Like · Reply · 16 h
	Sara Morais Da Silva Yes! It was my breakfast reading today!!! Like · Reply · 16 h
	Eve Wooldrige I always read mine. Lots of useful info inside!
	I always have a flick through and tend to cut out the Tallulah's kitchen section and add it to my 'recipes I want to try if I had the time' box  Like · Reply · 15 h
	Ashlea Proudfoot  ✓ Great!  Like · Reply · 15 h
•	Raymond Munden Run by local folk it is a local gem. Like · Reply · 15 h  Clara Friemann
	Read it too! 0 1 Like · Reply · 15 h Tracey Hennighan
	Fab source of local information Like · Reply · 14 h  Linda Brooks  Always read it 1
	Like · Reply · 14 h  Matthew Rayner Love it
®	Like · Reply · 13 h  Olive Rice Yes .very informative Love it .
	Sue Mantle Very useful and I look forward to its arrival. Like · Reply · 12 h
	Peter Miller Cover to cover, always something of interest in every edition.  Like · Reply · 9 h
•	Hilary Webb Allways read it Like · Reply · 7 h
	Jan Fox I always read it Like · Reply · 7 h Debbie Roots
*	Very useful 0 1 Like · Reply · 7 h Terri Smith
(a)	I don't personally read it. I prefer online version.  Like · Reply · 7 h  Susanne Walker Skinner  Like it. X
	Like · Reply · 7 h  Gill Perry Grainger Yes I always go through it.
	Like · Reply · 6 h  Rita Perrett  Yes, read from front to back.  Like · Reply · 6 h
1	Cathleen Brazier Always read it 1 Like · Reply · 5 h
	Val Barrett Find it very informative, so grateful to receive it regularly, thank you. Like · Reply · 5 h
	Janet Pike I always read it cover to cover Like · Reply · 5 h
6	Jennifer Collard I always read it x 1 Like · Reply · 5 h Julia Bottrill
	Yes and I love the baking bit tool Like Reply 5 h  Audrey Drage Very useful, keep it coming Like · Reply · 4 h  Ian Knowles I look forward to every edition.
	Like · Reply · 3 h  Liz Harris  Yes always read it. An extremely helpful publication.  Like · Reply · 3 h
1	Christine Brown Great source of local information, my "go to" magazine for local tradesmen and love reading about what is happening in our lovely town
	Like · Reply · 2 h  Jon Large Great to ask the question now and again.
	Positives - it's bright, vibrant and topical. It provides both similar and different content to other channels that we can access. I am pleased to see the response in this thread so far, especially from businesses.  Negatives - print media will always have a place, but it's Negatives - print media will always have a place, but it's becoming less influential. If I need some information, I go online as I trust that to be more up-to-date. (Also, my last couple of issues have been delivered after 10pm - slightly unusual).
	A big thanks to the team, contributors and sponsors that bring The Listing together.  Like · Reply · 2 h Shelley Ward I do enjoy reading it- love that it is local and would look for a copy to search for tradesmen. The 'whats on' section is good. I like the cooking ideas too. I would also say it would be nice to have a little more content to 'read'. Maybe a business focus each month with specials they are doing- maybe a voucher for readers, in season products and where to find them. A gardeners section or star gazing, local walk suggestion etc Just ideas. I think it will always be valuable to Royston.
•	it will always be valuable to Royston.  Like · Reply · 29 m  Gary Crook
	A PANALOGO N
	9
	GRRRRRRRREAT Like · Reply · 17 m
(3)	Cath McKee I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post THANK YOU so much to the community, our readers, contributors and
	Cath McKee I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post THANK YOU is so much
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post. THANK YOU so so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post THANK YOU. so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community – so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too – if there is something you would like in the magazine and it
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post THANK YOU. So much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community – so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too – if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming!
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post THANK YOU so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community – so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too – if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue, I will PM you separately, we reach some 16,500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post. THANK YOU so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community – so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too – if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue, I will PM you separately, we reach some 16,500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post. THANK YOU is so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community – so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too – if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue, I will PM you separately, we reach some 16,500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank where you put in every month!!!    Elike Reply · 1 w · Edited  Sheenagh Lendrum  Really enjoy the magazine and think we are very lucky to have such an informative publication delivered every
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post
	Cath McKee I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post THANK YOU is so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that. by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still – and always plan to be – in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community – so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too – if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue, I will PM you separately, we reach some 16,500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank you. You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you, You have quite honestly made our day thank you are the properties.  Ellie Laughlin  Cath McKee so nice to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!!  We reply 1 h  Linda Charl
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post
	Cath McKee I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post.  THANK YOU  Thank
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post.  Thank YOU  Thank
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post.  THANK YOU  So much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still and always plan to be — in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community — so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too — if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough. Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming!  Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue. I will PM you separately, we reach some 16.500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems. So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day at the like. Reply · 1 w. Edited  Ellie Laughlin  Cath McKee so nice to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!!  Write a reply. 1 b.  Linda Bance  Sit down with a coffee and read about our wonderful town and the people who make it what's it is. The Listing embraces so much of life in Royston and feeds us with ideas and information. We are privileged to have this as I know than rot all market towns are so locky. Printed magazines are NOT out of date. They still appeal and needed by many. Thank you.  Like · Reply · 1 h  Linda Bance  Sit down with a coffee and read about our wonderful town and the people who make i
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this posts.  THANK YOU  so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still — and always plan to be — in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community — so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community, I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too — if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue, I will PM you separately, we reach some 16,500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you, You have quite honestly made our day in the listing team, thank you, You have quite honestly made our day in the listing team, thank you, You have quite honestly made our day in the listing team, thank you, You have good and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!! We like Reply -14  Like Reply -14  Linda Bance  Sit down with a coffee and read about our wonderful town and the people who make it what's it is. The Listing embraces so much of life in Royston and feeds us with ideas and information. We are privileged to have this as I know that not all market towns are so lucky. Printed magazines are NOT out of date. They still appeal and needed by many. Thank you.  Like Reply -1 h  Michelle Bonfield
	Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post.  I THANK YOU.  I so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is! I am so pleased to hear that, by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still and always plan to be — in print, as well as onliner as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community — so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too — if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know, tunnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue. I will PM you separately, we reach some 16.500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day a like Reply - 1 w. Edited  Discovery I we Edited  Discovery I we reach so note to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!!  Discovery I we reach so note to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!!  Discovery I we reach so note to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!!  Discovery I we form the people who make it what's it is. The Listing embraces so much of life in Royston and feeds us with ideas and information. We are privileged to have this as! know that not all market towns a Cath McKe  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post.  I'm ANK YOU.  I'm so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is I am so pleased to hear that by and large, we are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still relevant and valued some 15 years on. We are still relevant and valued some 15 years on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community - so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job.  And I love hearing your content suggestions too - if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough. Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue. I will PM you separately, we reach some 16.500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day at the read of the property hard working independent local business owner. And our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day at the Reply-1 we have such an informative publication delivered every month!! I'm will be reply-1 to the day of the property in the works! I know from personal experience  Sheenagh Lendrum  Really enjoy the magazine and think we are very lucky to have such an informative publication delivered every month!! I'm will be property in the hard work you put in every month!! I'm will Cath McKee  I am absolutely blown away by the comments and feedback on this post.  THANK YOU.  I so much to the community, our readers, contributors and advertisers who make the magazine what it is I am on pleased to hear that. by and large, we are still relevant and valued some I5 years on. We are still relevant and valued some I5 years on. We are still and always plan to be — in print, as well as online; as a digital magazine, with web articles and on our social media channels.  We are here to promote businesses, organisations and the community — so please do keep us in touch. We are here to help and support you, our community. I always said, if the magazine makes a difference to one person's life, then we've done our job!  And I love hearing your content suggestions too — if there is something you would like in the magazine and it isn't already please let me know. Funnily enough, Covid-19 is allowing us to rewrite the rulebook a bit, with no "What's On" events for the summer we are looking at introducing new features. So keep your ideas coming! Those of you who have indicated a distribution issue. I will PM you separately, we reach some 16,500 houses with our own team of 40 adults and teens, which means we can easily track back any problems.  So from one very hard working independent local business owner, and our very small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day and the team for the hard work you put in every small The Listing team, thank you. You have quite honestly made our day and the team for the hard work you put in every month!!!   Ellie Laughlin  Cath McKee so nice to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every small The Listing team, thank you. The hard work you put in every month!!   Ellie Laughlin  Cath McKee so nice to see this post! No one deserves it more than you and the team for the hard work you put in every small The Listing team.  Hard Some shape of the put o

Paul Caden 20 hrs • 💿

Like

Hi all, I'm looking for some honest feedback on the Listings magazine.
What are your thoughts? Do you read it?

Sharon Windebank, Kate Beed and 45 others

89 comments

Comment